YWCA Fort Worth & Tarrant County (A on map)

YWCA is dedicated to eliminating racism and empowering women. Programs include child development for homeless and disadvantaged children and residential services for young women who have aged out of foster care and women who are transitionally homeless. Residential programs help women move toward independence by providing safe housing, education and extensive case management. All YWCA Resale Shop proceeds benefit these programs. For information call 817-332-6191 or visit www.ywca.org/fortworth.

Goodwill Industries of Fort Worth (B on map)

Goodwill is devoted to changing lives through the power of work by providing jobs and jobs training for those with significant barriers to employment. Goodwill served 18,000 people in Tarrant County last year. Proceeds from all Goodwill Stores benefit these programs. For information call 817-332-7866 or visit www.goodwillfortworth.org.

Safe Haven of Tarrant County (C on map)

Safe Haven's mission is to end domestic violence. Its two emergency shelters accommodate 174 domestic violence victims. Safe Haven shelters 2,700 adult and child victims a year and serves 3,700 other clients seeking counseling. The 24-hour hotline receives more than 40,000 calls annually. Berry Good Buys' proceeds benefit these services. For information visit www.safehavenc.org or call the 24-hour hotline at 1-877-701-SAFE (7233).

Junior League of Fort Worth (D on map)

The Junior League of Fort Worth is a charitable nonprofit organization of women committed to promoting voluntarism, developing the potential of women and improving communities through the effective action and leadership of trained volunteers. Its purpose is exclusively educational and charitable. Today, the Junior League is comprised of more than 1,600 members and is part of the Association of Junior Leagues International, one of the largest volunteer organizations in the world. Proceeds from Double Exposure benefit Junior League programs. For information visit www.JuniorLeagueFW.org.
